

Phrasebook 10—Dinner Party

If you are invited to a dinner party in a private home you should:

1. Dress well. Wear neat, clean, pressed clothes. No shorts, tee-shirts, or other “athletic attire”.
2. Never come empty-handed. Bring a gift such as a bottle of wine, a box of chocolates, or candy for the children.
3. Your host may politely tell you that you need not remove your shoes. Remove them anyway. Either bring your own slippers or accept those provided.
