

The two verbs of motion shown below both describe motion which proceeds in one general direction during the time described by the narrator. Refer to Vocabulary 11—Verbs of Motion for more information.

идти—to be walking

Я иду́—I am walking

Ты идёшь—you (singular informal) are walking

Он/Она/Оно идёт— he/she/it is walking

Мы идём—we are walking

Вы идёте—you (plural or formal) are walking

Они идут—they are walking

ехать—to be riding or driving

Я еду́—I am riding/driving

Ты едешь—you (singular informal) are riding/driving

Он/Она/Оно едет—he/she/it is riding/driving

Мы едем—we are riding/driving

Вы едете—you(plural or formal) are riding/driving

Они едут—they are riding/driving

Practice using these verbs by supplying the proper subject and verb in the following sentences. Use the boxes at right to draw what is happening in the sentences.

1) They are walking to the meeting.

_____ на собрание.

2) He is walking to the store quickly.

_____ в магазин быстро.

3) I am walking to the river slowly.

_____ к реке медленно.

4) They are walking along on their way to the post office.

_____ на почту.

5) I am on the bus on my way to the store.

_____ в автобусе _____ в магазин.

6) We are driving on the way to your house.

_____ к тебе домой.

7) She is on her way to Moscow.

_____ в Москву.

8) I am walking on my way to the doctor.

_____ к врачу.